"Now, just remember, the doors open in 5 minutes and we only got 5 minutes so, no pushin' or shovin' - no one's gettin' hurt and missin' work t'day ... got it?"

TO THE PUB

"Come on, Girls - let's get a move-on! The doors are almost ready to open and we got some serious pinchin' to do? Just look for anyone not wearin' the green triangle! Let's go!"

"Now, LISTEN UP, People ... When the Pub Doors open, you've got FIVE MINUTES ... you hear me, right? FIVE MINUTES - that is HALF of your company-sponsored 10-minute break and you gotta use the other HALF to get back to your workstations so, you know the rule: BETTER DRINK FAST! Oh yeah, and don't forget to wear your Factory-issued Green Triangle - it'll keep you from gettin' pinched and you know how pinchin' slows down drinkin', right?"

"Aw, COME ON, Ernie! Open the Factory doors!! We was only like one minute late ... we ALMOST made it ... Come on, be a good sport ... It's St. Paddy's Day ... Have an Irish Heart, Man ... we downed those pints in less than three minutes! Heck, we all wore our Green Triangles and none of us got pinched! We was only a minute late ... Let us in, Ernie! Come on ..."
